Gatehouse School, part of the Phyllis Wallbank Educational Trust, is a flourishing, non-selective independent school in the heart of the east end of London. We are proud of our inclusive and friendly ethos which sets out to provide the best education possible for children, establishing a modern outlook on primary education while retaining the key traditional values on which it was founded. Our exam results are excellent and our pupils go forward to a range of competitive schools.

Music is a very high-profile subject in Gatehouse School. Alongside the weekly music lessons for each class, children have the opportunity to be part of the many musical clubs and activities on offer at the school, such as choirs, orchestras, percussion groups, wind ensembles amongst others. All of these are currently run by the Head of Music, music teacher, and a talented team of peripatetic instrumental teachers.

Gatehouse puts on a number of performance opportunities for children throughout the year, such as nativities, a musical in Year 2 and Year 6, Beginners Recitals, and end-of-term orchestral and choral concerts.
